Alternate Collection Arrangement of Bank of China (Hong Kong) Centenary Commemorative Banknote

Bank of China (Hong Kong) (the “Bank”) will arrange alternate collection from 18 to 31 January 2018 (the “alternate collection period”) for successful applicants who have not yet collected the Bank of China (Hong Kong) Centenary Commemorative Banknote (the “Commemorative Banknote”).

From 14 January 2018, the Bank will notify successful applicants individually of the alternate collection arrangement (the “Notice of Alternate Collection Arrangement”) by the notification method they selected at subscription (SMS, email or post). Such information will also be available on www.bochk100.com under “Check Application Result”. Within the alternate collection period, successful applicants shall collect the Commemorative Banknote at the designated branch as specified in the Notice of Alternate Collection Arrangement during business hours, which are 9am to 5pm from Monday to Friday, and 9am to 1pm on Saturday. For collection, successful applicants should bring along the original of their Hong Kong Identity Card and the Notice of Alternate Collection Arrangement.

Successful applicants may also appoint an agent (the “Authorised Agent”) to collect the Commemorative Banknote(s) on their behalf. Such Authorised Agent must:

- be a Hong Kong resident aged 18 or above in 2017.
- present the following documents upon collection:
 - (1) a copy of the successful applicant’s Hong Kong Identity Card;
 - (2) the original of the Authorisation Form for Collection duly signed by the successful applicant (to download from www.bochk100.com/news_e.jsp or obtain from any of the Bank’s branches);
 - (3) the original of the Authorised Agent’s Hong Kong Identity Card; and
 - (4) the Notice of Alternate Collection Arrangement (SMS, email or letter).

From 9am, 14 January 2018, details of the alternate collection arrangement will be available on www.bochk100.com/news_e.jsp. For enquiries, please call our Enquiry Hotline on (852) 3988 2100.
