In the ordinary course of its business, the Group conducts certain Continuing Connected Transactions with BOC and its associates that have been disclosed in the announcements dated January 4, 2005, April 11, 2006 and August 28, 2007, respectively (the “Announcements”).

At the time of the initial listing of the Company’s shares on the Stock Exchange, the Company obtained from the Stock Exchange a waiver from strict compliance with the requirements under the Listing Rules in respect of these Continuing Connected Transactions and an annual cap was assigned to some of the Continuing Connected Transactions for each of the three financial years ended December 31, 2004. Pursuant to the Announcements, new annual caps were assigned to each type of the Continuing Connected Transactions for each of the three financial years ended December 31, 2007, or the financial year ending December 31, 2008, as the case may be.

The Continuing Connected Transactions continue following the expiration of the financial year ended December 31, 2007. The Company has assigned new annual caps for each of the three financial years ending December 31, 2010 (the “New Caps”) in respect of the Continuing Connected Transactions.

Given that the New Caps in respect of the General Connected Transactions represent less than 2.5% of the applicable percentage ratios as defined in the Listing Rules, the General Connected Transactions fall within Rule 14A.34 of the Listing Rules, and are subject to the reporting and announcement requirements under Rules 14A.45 to 14A.47 and the annual review requirements under Rules 14A.37 and 14A.38 of the Listing Rules.

Given that the New Caps in respect of the Investment Connected Transactions and Inter-bank Connected Transactions represent more than 2.5% of the applicable percentage ratios as defined in the Listing Rules, the Investment Connected Transactions and Inter-bank Connected Transactions constitute non-exempt continuing connected transactions under Rule 14A.35 of the Listing Rules, and are subject to the reporting, announcement and independent shareholders’ approval requirements under Rules 14A.45 to 14A.48 and the annual review requirements under Rules 14A.37 and 14A.38 of the Listing Rules.

The Board has set up the Independent Board Committee to review and approve the Continuing Connected Transactions. The Company has also retained Commerzbank AG as the independent financial adviser to the Independent Board Committee for the purpose of considering the Continuing Connected Transactions.

A circular containing, among other things, (i) details of the Investment Connected Transactions and the Inter-bank Connected Transactions and the New Caps in respect of Investment Connected Transactions and Inter-bank Connected Transactions; (ii) a letter from Commerzbank AG to the Independent Board Committee and the independent shareholders of the Company containing its advice on the Investment Connected Transactions and the Inter-bank Connected Transactions; and (iii) the recommendation of the Independent Board Committee in respect of the Investment Connected Transactions and the Inter-bank Connected Transactions, will be despatched to the shareholders of the Company as soon as practicable. A notice of the EGM will be despatched to the shareholders of the Company separately.

BACKGROUND TO THE CONTINUING CONNECTED TRANSACTIONS

The Group conducts Continuing Connected Transactions with BOC and its associates in the ordinary and usual course of its business on normal commercial terms. BOC indirectly controls more than 60% of the issued shares of the Company and is the controlling shareholder of the Company. Accordingly, BOC and its associates are connected persons of the Company under the Listing Rules.

Pursuant to the Services and Relationship Agreement, BOC has agreed to, and agreed to procure its associates to, enter into all future arrangements with the Group on an arm's-length basis, on normal commercial terms and at rates no less favourable than those offered to independent third parties, in relation to certain areas including, among others, information technology services, training services, physical bullion agency services, correspondent banking arrangements, treasury transactions, provision of insurance and syndicated loans. Pursuant to the same agreement, the Company has agreed to, and agreed to procure its subsidiaries to, enter into all future arrangements on the same basis, provided that the rates offered by the Group to BOC and its associates will be no more favourable than those offered to independent third parties. The Continuing Connected Transactions are governed by the Services and Relationship Agreement and/or other specific agreements. The Services and Relationship Agreement, as amended, is for a period of three years commencing January 1, 2008. The amended duration is the only amended term of the Services and Relationship Agreement.

The annual caps for each of the financial years ended December 31, 2006 in respect of the Continuing Connected Transactions have not been exceeded. The Company does not expect the annual caps for the financial year ended December 31, 2007 to be exceeded.

* Actual amount for the ten months ended October 31, 2007 while the 2007 annual cap is HK$18,000 million

Note: As announced by the Company on April 11, 2006, the Group entered into a supplemental agreement with BOC in March 2006 that amended the term of the Services and Relationship Agreement with respect to inter-bank capital markets transactions to December 31, 2008, and the annual cap in relation to inter-bank capital markets transactions for the year ending December 31, 2008 was set at HK$22,000 million. For the reasons set out below, the Company proposed to revise the annual cap for the year ending December 31, 2008 from HK$22,000 million to HK$50,000 million.

REASONS AND BASIS FOR THE NEW CAPS

General Connected Transactions

The Company intends to set for each of the three financial years ending December 31, 2010 in respect of each of the General Connected Transactions the New Caps at HK$1,100 million.

The General Connected Transactions in general are mainly transactions with BOC for mutual benefits or synergy (e.g. credit card services, information technology services, property transactions, bank notes delivery and provision of insurance cover). The historical transaction amounts of the General Connected Transactions are relatively stable and the growth rates are within the range of 6.4% and 11.1% in 2006 (except for property transactions which recorded a decrease in 2006). Although the historical growth rates of the respective transaction amounts during 2006 were not significant, they are subject to a number of uncertainties, such as the business environment of the banking industry, property markets and insurance market etc., and may vary in the forthcoming three years. For the bank-note delivery, provision of insurance cover and credit card services, the transaction amounts of which for the ten months ended October 31, 2007 have already exceeded their respective transaction amounts for the ten months ended October 31, 2006 and such amounts were beyond the Company's expectation. For the information technology services and property transactions, the transaction amounts for the ten months ended October 31, 2007 represent approximately 62.5% and 89.9%, respectively of the historical transaction amounts for the year ended December 31, 2006. However, it is difficult to predict the property price and rental in Hong Kong for the future three years. In addition, it is expected that the banking industry will place more reliance on information technology service and support, which may thus increase the transaction amounts in respect of the information technology services. The New Caps are set at a standard amount of HK$1,100 million which have been determined with reference to the expected growth of transactions with BOC. With the further strengthening of the Group's relationship with BOC, the Group expects the General Connected Transactions to increase as compared to the historical amounts. Given the New Caps are estimated to be less than 2.5% of all applicable percentage ratios as defined in the Listing Rules, it is beneficial to set the New Caps at a standard amount of HK$1,100 million so as to allow more room for the Group's planned expansion into the PRC market. Given the continued growth of the PRC economy and the Group's strategy on long-term development of RMB banking business in Hong Kong, greater transaction volumes and amounts are expected between the Group and BOC (e.g. credit card services and bank note delivery services). Therefore, it is reasonable to set a buffer for the New Caps, taking into account the further strengthening of the Group's business relationship with BOC. In this connection, the directors of the Company (including the independent non-executive directors) are of the view that the New Caps are in the interests of the Company and its shareholders as a whole. In addition, Commerzbank AG has also confirmed to the Independent Board Committee that, in its opinion, the General Connected Transactions have been entered into in the ordinary and usual course of the Group's business, on normal commercial terms, are fair and reasonable, and are in the interests of the Company and its shareholders as a whole.

Investment Connected Transactions and the Inter-bank Connected Transactions

The Investment Connected Transactions involve activities which are regulated by various regulatory bodies in Hong Kong, such as, the Hong Kong Monetary Authority, the Securities and Future Commission and Office of the Commissioner of Insurance. The securities transactions are subject to the turnover of the stock market in Hong Kong and the historical transaction amounts for the ten months ended October 31, 2007 increased significantly as compared to the historical transaction amounts for the year ended 2006 due to the booming stock market during 2007. The caps for the securities transactions have been revised in August 2007 which indicates that such transactions are greatly affected by external factors beyond the control of the Group. For the fund distribution transactions, they are mainly determined by customers' decision on their wealth management portfolio (e.g. stock, trust fund and foreign currency etc.) which are also not within the Group's control. The historical amounts of the fund distribution transactions for the ten months ended October 31, 2007 increased significantly by over 2.5 times of the historical transaction amounts for the year ended December 31, 2006. For the insurance agency transactions, they relate primarily to the insurance market which is also subject to external factors similar to that of the stock market in Hong Kong and the historical transaction amounts of which for the ten months ended October 31, 2007 also increased by approximately 5.66% over the historical transaction amounts for the year ended December 31, 2006. All of the transactions above increased significantly for the ten months ended October 31, 2007 and the transaction values of which are subject to a number of external factors that are beyond the control of the Group. Accordingly, a standard cap amount of HK$2,700 million is proposed for each of the Investment Connected Transactions for the year ending December 31, 2008. Such annual cap is based on 5% of the revenue of the Group (being the benchmark figure adopted internally by the Company with reference to the Company's experience in similar transactions and which the Company considers reasonable given the volatility of the capital markets) of approximately HK$47,165 million for the year ended December 31, 2006 after taking into account a growth rate of approximately 14.5% (being the growth rate of the Company's net operating income, as reflected in the Company's 2007 Interim Report). For each of the two years ending December 31, 2010, an annual growth rate of 50% is applied on the annual cap for the year ending December 31, 2008 to set the respective annual caps for each of the Investment Connected Transactions. Such annual growth rate has been determined after taking into account the market-driven nature of the Investment Connected Transactions which is considered to be difficult for the Group to estimate. Since the transaction amounts of the Investment Connected Transactions may vary significantly due to the unexpected fluctuations of the financial markets, in particular the annual cap of the Securities Transactions for the year ended December 31, 2007 has been revised in August 2007, the directors (including the independent non-executive directors) consider setting standard cap amounts for the Investment Connected Transactions for each of the three years ending December 31, 2010 are in the interests of the Company and its shareholders as a whole.

The Inter-bank Connected Transactions involve transactions among bank or financial institutions, which are regulated by monetary authorities in all regions. For these transactions, a buy order and a sell order will be regarded as two transactions, and the amounts involved will therefore count twice, for example, a foreign exchange transaction needs to roll over every month, the total amount incurred from such transaction will therefore be rolled over 24 times. Accordingly, the historical transaction amounts are not good indicator to estimate the future transaction amounts.

For the foreign exchange transactions, the transactions include spot, forward and outright transactions, which may vary significantly depending on the prevailing market rates. The revenue or loss generated from these transactions is largely dependent on the relative strength or weakness of the currency, which is beyond the Company's control. Given the market-driven nature of the foreign exchange transactions which is difficult for the Group to estimate the future transaction amounts, the new annual caps of this transaction are set at the same amounts as those of Investment Connected Transactions. The directors including the independent non-executive directors consider the annual caps for the foreign exchange transactions for the three years ending December 31, 2010 are in the interests of the Company and its shareholders as a whole.

For the trading of financial assets and the inter-bank capital markets transactions, these transactions involve dollar bills and exchange fund notes of which the Group is one of the market makers in Hong Kong. In 2006, the historical transaction amounts for the trading of financial assets and the inter-bank capital markets transactions increased significantly by approximately 337% and approximately 41%, respectively over those historical transaction amounts in 2005. The significant increase during 2006 was mainly due to the high demand for Hong Kong dollar notes and the increase in the corresponding Hong Kong dollar loans. For the ten months ended October 31, 2007, the demand for Hong Kong dollar notes dropped sharply and approximately HK$1,825 million in value was transacted. Given the great uncertainties of these two transactions which may vary subject to market conditions, the annual cap for the year ending December 31, 2008 is set with reference to 5% of the total assets of the Group (being the benchmark figure adopted internally by the Company with reference to the Company's experience in similar transactions and which the Company considers reasonable given the volatility of the capital markets) of approximately HK$924,227 million as at December 31, 2006 after taking into account a growth rate of approximately 6.5% (being the growth rate of the interim total asset value of the Company in 2007, as reflected in the Company's 2007 Interim Report). For each of the two years ending December 31, 2010, an annual growth rate of 50% is applied on the annual cap for the year ending December 31, 2008 to set the respective annual caps for each of the trading of financial assets and the inter-bank capital markets. Such annual growth rate has been determined after taking into account the market-driven nature of the trading of financial assets and the inter-bank capital markets, which are considered to be difficult for the Group to estimate. Such annual caps provides flexibility for the Group to accommodate future unexpected volatility of the financial markets and the directors including the independent non-executive directors consider the annual caps are in the interests of the Company and its Shareholders as a whole.

LISTING RULES REQUIREMENTS

General Connected Transactions

Given that the New Caps in respect of the General Connected Transactions represent less than 2.5% of the applicable percentage ratios as defined in the Listing Rules, the General Connected Transactions fall within Rule 14A.34 of the Listing Rules, and are subject to the reporting and announcement requirements under Rules 14A.45 to 14A.47 and the annual review requirements under Rules 14A.37 and 14A.38 of the Listing Rules. If any of the New Caps is exceeded or any of the relevant agreements is renewed or the terms thereof are materially varied, the Company shall comply with Rules 14A.35(3) and (4) of the Listing Rules.

Investment Connected Transactions and the Inter-bank Connected Transactions

Given that the New Caps in respect of the Investment Connected Transactions and the Inter-bank Connected Transactions represent more than 2.5% of the applicable percentage ratios as defined in the Listing Rules, the Investment Connected Transactions and the Inter-bank Connected Transactions constitute non-exempt continuing connected transactions under Rule 14A.35 of the Listing Rules, and are subject to the reporting, announcement and independent shareholders' approval requirements under Rules 14A.45 to 14A.48 and the annual review requirements under Rules 14A.37 and 14A.38 of the Listing Rules. As the Investment Connected Transactions and the Inter-bank Connected Transactions continue following the expiration of the financial year ended December 31, 2007, the directors of the Company will ensure that each of the aggregate transaction values of the Investment Connected Transactions and the Inter-bank Connected Transactions falls within 2.5% of the applicable percentage ratios as defined in the Listing Rules, prior to obtaining approval from independent shareholders of the Company at the EGM. Various control mechanisms have been adopted by the Company to ensure that the relevant connected transactions falls within the 2.5% threshold. Such mechanisms include generating monthly reports showing the transaction figures for each of the relevant connected transactions, and imposing a lower threshold as an internal cap whereby a warning signal will be issued automatically and preventive measures will be taken immediately if the relevant connected transactions reach the internal cap.

In the event that the independent shareholders of the Company do not grant approval for the Investment Connected Transactions and the Inter-bank Connected Transactions at the EGM, the Company will ensure that the transaction figures of such connected transactions fall within the 2.5% threshold for the remaining of the year. Further, pursuant to the Services and Relationship Agreement, the Company has the right to exit the relevant connected transactions by giving prior written notice to BOC or its associates, as the case may be.

The board of directors of the Company has set up the Independent Board Committee comprising all of the independent non-executive directors of the Company to review the Continuing Connected Transactions and give recommendations to the independent shareholders. The Company has also retained Commerzbank AG as the independent financial adviser to the Independent Board Committee for the purpose of considering the Continuing Connected Transactions.

Commerzbank AG has confirmed to the Independent Board Committee that, in its opinion, the General Connected Transactions, the Investment Connected Transactions and Inter-bank Connected Transactions have been entered into in the ordinary and usual course of the Group's business, on normal commercial terms, are fair and reasonable, and are in the interests of the Company and its shareholders as a whole. On the basis of Commerzbank AG's advice and its own review, the directors of the Company (including the Independent Board Committee) is satisfied that the General Connected Transactions, the Investment Connected Transactions and Inter-bank Connected Transactions have been entered into in the ordinary and usual course of the Group's business on normal commercial terms and are fair and reasonable and are in the interest of the Company and its shareholders as a whole.

A circular containing, among other things, (i) details of the Investment Connected Transactions and the Inter-bank Connected Transactions and the New Caps in respect of the Investment Connected Transactions and the Inter-bank Connected Transactions; (ii) a letter from Commerzbank AG to the Independent Board Committee and the independent shareholders of the Company containing its advice on the Investment Connected Transactions and the Inter-bank Connected Transactions; and (iii) the recommendation of the Independent Board Committee in respect of the Investment Connected Transactions and the Inter-bank Connected Transactions will be despatched to the shareholders of the Company as soon as practicable. A notice of the EGM will be despatched to the shareholders of the Company separately.
