

BOC HONG KONG (HOLDINGS) LIMITED

Mandate of the Audit Committee

1. Purpose

1.1 The Audit Committee (the “Committee”) is a standing committee of the Board of Directors (the “Board”). The purpose of the Committee is to assist the Board in fulfilling its oversight responsibility for BOC Hong Kong (Holdings) Limited (the “Company”), Bank of China (Hong Kong) Limited (the “Bank”) and its subsidiaries (together, the “Group”) relating to:

- the integrity of financial statements and the financial reporting process;
- the systems of internal control;
- the performance of internal audit functions and internal auditors;
- the appointment of external auditors and the evaluation of the external auditors’ qualifications, independence and performance;
- the periodic review and annual audit of the Group’s financial statements;
- compliance with applicable accounting standards and legal and regulatory requirements on financial disclosures; and
- enhancing the corporate governance framework of the Group.

1.2 The function of the Audit Committee is oversight. The Management is responsible for the preparation, presentation and integrity of the financial statements. The external auditors are responsible for planning and carrying out a proper audit of the Group’s annual financial statements, for the review of half-yearly financial statements and (if appropriate) for performing agreed-upon procedures of quarterly financial results. Both the Management and the external auditors are ultimately accountable to the Board and the shareholders.

2. Roles and Responsibilities

2.1 Financial reporting

2.1.1 The Committee shall review and monitor the effectiveness of the financial reporting processes implemented by the Management, and encourage the sufficient disclosure of information reasonably required by shareholders to make an investment decision on a fair and timely basis and to comply with applicable laws, regulations and best practices of the market.

- 2.1.2 The Committee shall review with the Management and the internal and external auditors:
- the appropriateness of the Group's accounting and financial reporting, including complex or unusual transactions, accounting treatment of significant risks and uncertainties and highly judgmental areas;
 - significant accounting and financial reporting issues raised by internal and external auditors; and
 - any new or significant changes to the Group's existing accounting policies and advise the Board on any significant new policies or significant changes to existing policies.
- 2.1.3 The Committee shall review with the Management and the internal and external auditors and approve or, if appropriate, recommend for approval by the Board:
- the annual audited financial statements, together with the report of the external auditors thereon;
 - the half-yearly financial statements;
 - the quarterly financial results;
 - all financial information in material public disclosure documents including prospectuses and other offering documents.
- 2.1.4 In reviewing such financial reports the Committee shall focus particularly on:
- compliance with applicable accounting standards;
 - compliance with Hong Kong Stock Exchange listing rules, regulations of the Hong Kong Monetary Authority, and other legal and regulatory requirements;
 - any changes in important accounting policies and practices;
 - the presentation and impact of significant risks and uncertainties as well as major areas of judgment of the Management that may be material to the statements or disclosure;
 - significant adjustments resulting from audit adjustments required;
 - alternative accounting treatments within generally accepted accounting principles;
 - disclosure of related party transactions and any unusual items that have occurred during the period under review;

- any significant or unusual items that are, or may need to be, reflected in such reports and accounts and must give due consideration to any matters that have been raised by the Group's staff responsible for the accounting and financial reporting function, compliance officer or auditors;
- completeness and adequacy of disclosures, ensuring that these are consistent with the information known to Committee members; and
- the going concern assumption.

2.1.5 If the dividend proposal submitted by the Management deviates from the dividend policy approved by the Board, the Committee shall review the dividend proposal and provide its recommendations to the Board.

2.1.6 The Committee shall review with the Management and the internal auditors the controls and processes that are used for the preparation and presentation of the Group's regulatory filings, including reports filed with the Hong Kong Monetary Authority.

2.2 Risk Management and Internal control

2.2.1 The Committee shall review and evaluate whether the Management is setting the appropriate "control culture" to make all employees understand their roles and responsibilities. The function of the Committee is one of oversight. It is the responsibility of the Management to establish a sound and effective risk management and internal control system.

2.2.2 The Committee shall review the effectiveness of the system of internal control, and, with the assistance of the internal auditors, conduct at least annually a review of the effectiveness of risk management and internal control system of the Group, which should cover all material controls, including financial, operational and compliance controls and risk management functions. The annual review to be conducted by the Committee (taking into account the Board's allocation of responsibility for oversight of all risks other than financial reporting risk to the Risk Committee) shall, in particular, consider:

- the changes since the last annual review in the nature and extent of significant financial reporting risks, and the Group's ability to respond to changes in its business and the external environment;
- the scope and quality of the Management's ongoing monitoring of financial reporting risks and of risk management and internal control system and compliance processes for accounting and external reporting;

- the effectiveness of the risk management and internal control system established by the Management to monitor transactions entered into or to be entered into between any member of the Group and any connected person or related party within the meaning or intent of the Listing Rules, the Banking Ordinance or other applicable regulatory requirements;
- the work of the internal audit function and other providers of assurance including reports (both regular and exceptional) produced by the internal auditors, any management letters submitted by the external auditors as well as the Management's responses, and any examination reports issued by regulatory authorities and the Management's responses. The Committee shall also meet with the internal auditors, the external auditors and the Management to discuss findings from their work and the resolution, or otherwise, of the points arising including any difficulties encountered;
- the extent and frequency of communication of monitoring results to the Committee which enables it to build up a cumulative assessment of the state of control in the Group and the effectiveness with which financial reporting risk is being managed;
- the incidence of significant control failings or weaknesses that have been identified at any time during the period and the extent to which they have resulted in unforeseen outcomes or contingencies that have had, could have had, or may in the future have, a material impact on the Group's financial performance or condition; and
- the adequacy of resources, qualifications and experience of staff of the Group's accounting and financial reporting function, and their training programs and budget.

2.2.3 Taking into account the Board's allocation of responsibility for oversight of risk management to the Risk Committee, the Committee shall:

- review reports from the HKMA and other regulators regarding risk management matters that may have a significant impact on the Group's financial standing and reputation, and ensure that the matters have been properly addressed; and
- ensure that any significant impact of these issues is reflected in the financial statements.

2.2.4 The Committee shall review whistleblowing arrangements for the Group's employees and other stakeholders who, in confidence, raise concerns about possible improprieties in financial reporting, internal control or other matters. The Committee shall ensure that proper arrangements are in place for the fair and independent investigation of such matters and for appropriate follow-up action.

2.2.5 The Committee should discuss with the management the system of risk management and internal control and ensure that management has discharged its duty to have an effective risk management and internal control system including the adequacy of resources, qualifications and experience of staff of the Group's accounting and financial reporting function, and their training programs and budget.

2.3 Legal and regulatory compliance

2.3.1 The duties of the Committee normally include reviewing the adequacy and effectiveness of the system of monitoring compliance with applicable laws and regulations governing the business of the Group. However, taking into account the Board's allocation of responsibility for oversight of legal and compliance risks to the Risk Committee, the Committee shall:

- review reports from the HKMA and other regulators regarding legal and compliance matters that may have a significant impact on the Group's financial standing and reputation, and ensure that the matters have been properly addressed; and
- ensure that any significant impact of these issues is reflected in the financial statements.

2.4 Internal audit

2.4.1 The Committee shall:

- review and approve, with input from the Management and the Head of Group Audit, the responsibilities and structure of the Group Audit and ensure no unjustified restrictions or limitations are made;
- recommend to the Nomination/Remuneration Committee and the Board the appointment, termination, remuneration, annual and long-term performance targets, and results of performance appraisal of the Head of Group Audit;

- taking into account recommendations of the Head of Group Audit and comments of the Chief Executive, review and approve the appointment and termination of the Head of Banking Audit and the Head of IT & Off-site Audit; the Committee should be informed of the succession arrangement timely. In case the succession takes place due to the retirement of the Head of Banking Audit and the Head of IT & Off-site Audit, the Committee should be informed of the arrangement at least 6 to 9 months in advance, and to participate in the selection of the proposed candidates. The period for job handover should be no less than three months. The remuneration (including the annual bonus payment and changes to the remuneration), annual performance targets, and results of performance appraisal of the Head of Banking Audit and the Head of IT & Off-site Audit would be proposed by the Head of Group Audit and approved by the Chief Executive, with the results thereof reported to the Audit Committee for records; and
- review and approve the audit strategy, methodologies and annual audit plan and budget of the Group Audit to ensure independence is maintained and sufficient resources are available for it to perform its duties.

2.4.2 The Committee shall annually review the effectiveness of the function of internal audit and ensure that it has appropriate standing within the Group.

2.4.3 The Committee shall:

- review the reports submitted by internal audit, together with the Management's response to any identified weaknesses on internal control; and
- receive and review reports submitted by internal audit summarizing the Management's response to matters not yet followed up and the progress of implementation of the same .

2.4.4 The Committee shall meet separately with the Head of Group Audit without the Management or executive director(s) present to discuss any matters that the Committee or internal auditors believe shall be discussed privately.

2.5 External audit

- 2.5.1 The Committee is responsible for the oversight of the external auditors, review and monitor the external auditors' independence and objectivity and the effectiveness of the audit process in accordance with applicable standard, and shall ensure the external auditors' ultimate accountability to the Board, the Committee and the shareholders.
- 2.5.2 The Committee shall make recommendations to the Board, for it to put to the shareholders for approval in general meeting, in relation to the appointment, reappointment and removal of the external auditors and approve the remuneration and terms of engagement of the external auditors. In the event of a resignation by the external auditors, the Committee shall enquire the circumstances of the resignation and clarify with the outgoing external auditors whether there is any matter in relation to their work or the circumstances of the resignation which shall be drawn to the attention of the Board and the shareholders.
- 2.5.3 The Committee shall discuss and review with the external auditors the nature, scope and approach of the audit and satisfy itself that the audit plan is risk based and covers all relevant activities over a measurable cycle and that the work of the external auditors and the internal audit is coordinated. The Committee shall also review with the external auditors (and the Management) all matters to be communicated to the Committee under generally accepted accounting principles.
- 2.5.4 The Committee shall review the results of the audit with the external auditors, internal auditors and the Management, and advise the Board of their findings in areas including:
- the external auditors' evaluation of the Group's internal accounting controls and any recommendations relating thereto;
 - the degree of cooperation the external auditors received from the Management, any problems experienced in conducting the audit and any restrictions imposed by the Management or significant accounting issues on which there was a disagreement with the Management;
 - the existence of problems or potential problems related to accounting and/or auditing matters and any accounting errors;
 - the external auditors' management letter, the Management's response and subsequent follow-up of any identified weaknesses;
 - the appropriateness and quality of all critical accounting policies and practices used by the Group and the selection and adoption of new policies and practices; and

- any alternative treatments of financial information that have been discussed with the Management, the ramifications of their use and the external auditors' suggested treatment, as well as any other material communications with the Management.

2.5.5 The Committee shall recommend to the Board the policy on the engagement of the external auditors to supply non-audit services. In relation to non-audit services, the Committee shall consider:

- whether there are safeguards in place, or whether necessary measurements shall be taken by the Committee or be recommended to the Board for adoption, to ensure that there is no threat to objectivity and independence in the conduct of the audit resulting from the provision of non-audit services by the external auditors; and
- the nature of the non-audit services, the related fee levels and the fee levels individually and in aggregate relative to the audit firm.

2.5.6 The Committee shall meet with the external auditors, at least annually, in the absence of the Management, to discuss any issues arising from the audit and any other matters the auditors may wish to raise.

2.6 Reporting responsibilities

2.6.1 The Committee shall report to the Board on the matters set out in this Mandate, regularly update the Board about the Committee's activities and consider other topics as defined by the Board, ensure that the Board is aware of matters which may significantly impact the Group's financial condition or business affairs of the business and make appropriate recommendations.

2.6.2 The Committee shall regularly communicate with other Board committees as appropriate. Taking into account that the Board's allocation of responsibility of oversight of all risks (other than financial reporting risk) to the Risk Committee, the Committee should maintain close dialogue with the Risk Committee and ensure that significant risk management matters and non-compliance issues are thoroughly discussed and addressed. This also ensures that any review of internal control system conducted by the Committee through the Group Audit and that conducted by the Risk Committee through the risk management functions of the Group (e.g. Risk Management Department, Legal & Compliance and Operational Risk Management Department, Financial Crime Compliance Department) are properly coordinated and no gaps arise.

- 2.6.3 The Committee shall review any other reports submitted by the Group relating to the Committee's responsibilities.

2.7 Corporate Governance

- 2.7.1 The Committee shall introduce to the Group principles of good corporate governance and monitor application of such principles to the establishment and implementation of important policies and procedures.
- 2.7.2 The Committee shall be responsible for reviewing and assessing the adequacy of the corporate governance framework of the Group (including the roles and responsibilities of other Board Committees, where appropriate) to ensure financial reporting, risk management and internal control meet governance standards of the Group.
- 2.7.3 The Committee shall ensure that the Board and Board Committees perform self-assessments of their performance and review their mandates, with such self-assessment and reviews taking place at least annually.
