A New Horizon

With the accomplishment of the Restructuring and Merger in October 2001 and the subsequent successful listing in July 2002, the Company is entering a new horizon.

Our annual report is in a thematic golden yellow colour, symbolising a bright future of the Company. It depicts our headquarters Bank of China Tower, which is a landmark in Hong Kong. The building’s unique design is inspired by the steady growth of bamboo and represents our commitment to forging ahead. We are geared towards maximizing shareholder value and providing quality service to customers.
