

28 April 2024

Notice of shortening the US securities transaction settlement cycle

According to the latest rule adopted by U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”), starting from 28 May, the standard settlement cycle of US securities will shorten from two business days after the trade date (T+2) to one business day after the trade date (T+1). Please visit SEC website for more details.

Bank of China (Hong Kong) Limited