

5 September 2024

BOCHK named “Hong Kong’s Best Bank for Corporate Responsibility” by *Euromoney

Bank of China (Hong Kong) (“BOCHK”) is named “Hong Kong’s Best Bank for Corporate Responsibility” in Euromoney’s “Awards for Excellence 2024”, in recognition of its strong commitment in fulfilling corporate responsibility and substantial investment in supporting social and environmental issues in Hong Kong.

Euromoney commended the Bank’s effort in promoting sustainable development through a wide range of initiatives. “To support customers’ low-carbon transition, BOCHK has been an innovator in providing various pioneering green and sustainable financial products and services, including the first green mortgage plan and the first green personal loans in Hong Kong. BOCHK is committed to undertaking corporate social responsibility by supporting over 80 charity projects in 2023, covering poverty alleviation, youth development, environmental protection and carbon reduction, sports and arts, and innovation and technology, with more than 6 million beneficiaries. The Bank also encourages its employees to serve their community and give back to society. In 2023, its 8,400 staff volunteers participated in 145 diverse community activities, notching up a total of over 23,000 volunteer service hours. To promote inclusive finance, the Bank has provided diverse and convenient financial services to all sectors of society, such as extending its banking network to remote public housing estates, and introducing a simplified version of its mobile banking app specifically designed for the elderly.”

As a leading international financial media and accreditation organisation, Euromoney has organised the “Awards for Excellence” annually since 1992, in recognition of institutions that have demonstrated outstanding achievements, innovation and leadership in banking, investment banking, asset management and capital markets industries.

- End -