Part 1 applies to all accounts and services.

Part 2 applies to banking services.

Part 3 applies to investment services.

Part 1: General provisions

1. Your instructions

- 1.1 You will only give instructions to us through a means we have notified, in accordance with the signing arrangement in your mandate, and in accordance with our requirements. We may reject (or act on) an instruction not so given. Different means of giving instructions may be available for different services. We may act on your instruction without enquiry, although it is inconsistent with an existing arrangement. You will check that each instruction is correct before sending it to us.
- 1.2 We may decline to act on your instructions without giving a reason and without liability.
- 1.3 Unless otherwise agreed by us, your authorised signatories have full authority to do everything on your behalf in relation to your accounts, and products and services available to you (except in respect of Corporate Internet Banking, Corporate Internet Banking Investment Function and CBS Phone Banking Services (each as further described in Conditions 10.1, 10.13 and 11 of Part 2 of these Conditions), unless otherwise authorised) including to operate your accounts, buy or sell any investments (in the case of an investment account), make withdrawals or transfers (of cash, investments, title documents and other property), open, register, deregister or close accounts, change transaction limits, arrange with us for any facilities and accommodation, enter into any agreement, give any instructions and information (including any information with respect to suitability assessment), and complete and sign all documents including account opening forms, but not to change your authorised signatories or signing arrangement, and if you are one or more individuals, not to open accounts or apply for new services. For the avoidance of doubt, this Condition 1.3 shall not apply to Corporate Internet Banking authorised signatories appointed in relation to Corporate Internet Banking and Corporate Internet Banking Investment Function authorised signatories appointed in relation to Corporate Internet Banking Investment Function (both of which shall be governed by Condition 10 of Part 2 of these Conditions) and to CBS Phone Banking Services authorised signatories appointed in relation to CBS Phone Banking Services (which shall be governed by Condition 11 of Part 2 of these Conditions).
- 1.4 You may change your authorised signatories or signing arrangement after giving us such notice and complying with such requirements and/or procedures as we prescribe from time to time. If one account uses the authorised signatories and signing arrangement of another account, changing the authorised signatories and signing arrangement of either account will not affect those of the other account.

- 1.5 Revocation of the existing authorised signatories' authority will not affect any instructions including cheques and bills of exchange received by us before the revocation becomes effective. Any instructions including cheques and bills of exchange, dated before or after the effective date of revocation and received by us after the effective date of revocation, will be revoked. Outstanding deposits may only be dealt with by the new signatories.
- 1.6 The authority of the account holders and authorised signatories to act according to your signing arrangement will not be revoked until we have received written notice revoking their authority. Their authority will remain in force until we have received written notice of your death or incapacity, and notwithstanding any change in your constitution.
- 1.7 We may regard your instructions as received by us as being what you intended to send. Any instruction that we reasonably believe is given by you or your authorised signatory will be valid and binding on you, whether or not it is in fact authorised. We need not verify the identity or authority of the person giving an instruction or the authenticity of an instruction. We may require evidence of identity or authority. We may regard your instruction (which duplicates another instruction) as a separate instruction, unless we actually knew before execution that it was a duplicate.
- 1.8 You will ensure that your instructions are complete and correct. An instruction once accepted cannot be altered or cancelled, without our agreement. If an instruction cannot be carried out, you will still be responsible for the charges and reasonable expenses that may be incurred.
- 1.9 If an instruction is received after our daily cut off time or outside our business hours, your account may be debited on the same day, but the instruction may not be processed until our next business day.
- 1.10 If your instruction cannot be executed in whole or part, we are not required to notify you immediately. An instruction may be partially executed if it cannot be fully executed. An instruction or part not executed by the days close of business or, if earlier, trading will lapse, unless a longer execution period has been specifically agreed.

- 2.2 Any instruction given by the use of your password is valid and binding on you. This is so notwithstanding any different requirements in your mandate or any other arrangement. Changes in your authorized signatories or signing arrangement will not affect operation by your existing password, you will have to change your password if you do not wish to allow access to your account by your existing password.

 - i. computer crime not prevented by our security system;
 - ii. a human or system error caused by us resulting in an improper transaction leading to lost or misplaced funds; or

- 5.2 Each service and account is also subject to our terms applicable from time to time to such service or account. Those terms prevail, if they conflict with these Conditions.
- 5.3 You will do everything reasonably required by us in relation to your account or instructions.
- 5.4 We need not act until we have received all necessary instructions, funds, property and documents, but may do so. If we do so, we may charge interest and fees. We may at any time terminate or close out any transaction (including a deposit) at your cost. We may on receipt of your instruction debit funds from your accounts, or put a "hold" in your accounts on funds and property, in the amounts estimated by us to be required to carry out your instruction. Our rights are not affected if we do not do so or by anything done or omitted by us in good faith.

- 5.5 If we believe that an action is required in respect of your account, and we have not received your instructions of what to do, we may (but are not obliged to) act at our discretion and without liability to you.
- 5.6 If you dispute any transaction, we may cancel or close out the transaction without affecting our rights.
- 5.7 You will only use our services for a lawful purpose.
- 5.8 We may freeze your accounts if we have notice that a petition has been presented for your bankruptcy or liquidation, or that a meeting has been called to consider a resolution for your liquidation, or that your partnership has been dissolved, or of any analogous process under any law, or of any third party claim, or if there appears in our opinion to be any irregularities in the operation of your accounts, or that you might become mentally incapacitated.
- 5.9 Any information provided by us is for your reference only. Unless otherwise expressly stated, it is not an offer. Subject to Condition 1A of Part 3 of these Conditions, we do not provide advice and our employees and agents do not have authority to advise you. No information provided should be regarded as an advice. You acknowledge that we do not give any representation, guarantee or assurance as to the outcome of any investment. Any price, rate or other quotation provided by us is only indicative, unless otherwise expressly stated, and may be changed without notice until we have confirmed acceptance of your offer. Unless otherwise expressly stated, the prices payable by you do not include, and you will in addition pay, applicable taxes, duties, levies, fees and reasonable expenses.
- 5.10 (a) We have the right to allocate customer status and to vary and withdraw customer status in accordance with pre-set criteria. The pre-set criteria may include total account balance, total relationship balance or any other criteria as we may consider appropriate. The currently applicable pre-set criteria are available from our website: www.bochk.com. Even if the pre-set criteria are met, we may at our sole discretion decide whether or not to allocate a customer status (and which customer status to be allocated), or whether or not to vary or withdraw a customer status.
- (b) The services, benefits and privileges which may be available and the fees and charges which may be imposed may vary by reference to the customer status. We will notify you of your customer status and any change or withdrawal of it from time to time.
- (c) Where there is a change or withdrawal of your customer status, we have the right (but not the obligation) to suspend or terminate any services, benefits or privileges which would not be available to the changed customer status. We are not responsible for any loss, consequence or inconvenience which you may incur or suffer in connection with any change or withdrawal of your customer status, or the suspension or termination of any services, benefits or privileges. We will notify you of any suspension or termination of services, benefits or privileges. Even if the services, benefits or privileges have been suspended or terminated, you shall remain bound by the applicable provisions of these Conditions and other provisions that govern the use of the services, benefits or privileges until you have paid and fulfilled all obligations and liabilities in relation to the services, benefits or privileges.

6. Our role

- 6.1 Our responsibilities are limited to those expressly set out in these Conditions and our terms (if any) for the relevant service. These Conditions apply, to the extent possible, to transactions on your behalf as well as with us.
- 6.2 You authorise us and any person appointed by us to do everything necessary or desirable for all purposes connected with our services.
- 6.3 We may do or refrain from doing anything that we believe is required in order to comply with any laws, regulations, rules and practices, including the rules, codes, guidelines and practices of regulatory authorities, the Hong Kong Association of Banks, exchanges and clearing houses. All such actions and omissions bind you.
- 6.4 We may use the service of third party agents, brokers, custodians, nominees, correspondents, networks, exchanges, clearing houses, market infrastructures and other persons (wherever situated) to hold your property or to perform any services. They may be our affiliates. You authorise us to accept their terms and conditions of service. We will use reasonable care in selecting these service providers but unless otherwise required by Hong Kong law or regulation, we will not be responsible for their acts, omissions or insolvency. You will pay their charges, and indemnify us against their claims. We will only appoint custodians qualified to act as custodian under applicable law.
- 6.5 Remuneration of our sales staff may consist of fixed and variable components. The award of variable remuneration correlates in part with the staff's performance in financial and non-financial factors.
- 6.6 We do not act as your legal, tax or (unless otherwise agreed in writing) financial adviser. You will obtain your own independent advice.

7. Payments / delivery

- 7.1 Payments will in ordinary operations only be debited to your designated account (or sub account) denominated in the same currency. Likewise for "holds" on funds in your accounts. We will determine whether you have a sufficient balance or overdraft by reference to your designated account (or sub account) denominated in the payment currency. However we may put a "hold" on amounts in other currencies. We may (but are not obliged to) convert an amount received or to be paid from one currency into another currency at our spot rate. We may, for the purpose of any calculation, notionally convert an amount from one currency into another currency at our spot rate.
- 7.2 Payments will be made to you subject to applicable laws, regulations, directives and Obligations (as defined in Condition 4.2 above) and any required deduction or withholding. You confirm that you have (or will at the relevant time have) provided notice to and secured consent or waiver from any person owning a beneficial interest in such payments in respect of the aforesaid deduction or withholding. We are authorised to pay the amount deducted or withheld to the relevant authority in accordance with the relevant requirement.
- 7.3 You will pay us in freely transferable and cleared funds and in the manner notified by us to be customary for payments in the relevant currency. Deliveries of any property by either party will be made in the manner notified by us to be customary for the relevant property or as determined by us.

- 7.4 If on any date amounts would be payable in the same currency under two or more transactions by each party, then on such date, each party's obligation to pay such amounts will, if we choose, be discharged, and the party by whom the larger aggregate amount would otherwise have been payable will pay to the other party the excess of such amount over the smaller aggregate amount.
- 7.5 You will on demand repay to us all sums owing from you (whether or not due).
- 7.6 Your payments will be made without any set-off, counterclaim or condition and free of all taxes, withholdings or deductions. If a withholding or deduction is required by law or the Obligations (as defined in Condition 4.2 above) or otherwise, you will pay an increased amount so that we receive a net amount equal to what we would have received had there been no withholding or deduction. You will duly pay the tax authority and send us the evidence.
- 7.7 Your payments will be made in the currency of the liability. A sum received by us in another currency only constitutes a discharge to the extent of the net amount of the currency of your liability which we would be able to purchase with the amount received as soon as it is practicable to do so. You will, as a separate obligation and notwithstanding any judgment, indemnify us against any loss and reasonable expense. It will be sufficient for us to show that we would have suffered a loss had an actual exchange or purchase been made.
- 7.8 We may apply any sum received to reduce your liability in the order selected by us, or place it in a suspense account to preserve our right to prove for your entire liability.
- 7.9 A sum or an item received for your account may not be drawn against or used and does not earn interest until we have unconditionally received cleared funds. We may at any time reverse any entry if the sum or item or part thereof is not actually received. You will indemnify us against all losses and reasonable expenses.
- 7.10 Your property and documents will be sent to you at your risk.
- 7.11 We may at any time recover from you including by way of debit from any of your account any erroneous payment.
- 7.12 We may retain any interest on amounts to be paid to you pending credit to your account, and on amounts to be paid on your behalf to a third party pending payment.
- 7.13 We may pay into an account bearing the designated account number or applicable account identifier (including Proxy ID as defined in Condition 13 of Part 2 of these Conditions relating to Faster Payment System), without verifying the name of the account holder.
- 7.14 Cash will be paid to you after rounding down to the nearest ten cents (or, for Japanese yen, to the nearest dollar). This constitutes full payment.

- (e) we are not obliged to act on any of your instructions if (i) we consider that your instruction would result in a breach of any applicable law or order by a court of competent jurisdiction; or (ii) we have a reasonable ground for believing that your instruction would result in a misapplication of funds in the deceased person's estate or a breach of trust or your other duties; and
- (f) you undertake to close the personal representative account when you cease to hold the deceased person's estate as personal representative(s).

Part 2: Banking services

1. Collections / payments in

- 1.1 We may decline (without giving a reason) or accept (subject to conditions) an item for collection. You will pay our collection charges and reasonable expenses, including the charges of the paying bank and any correspondents. We may clarify any ambiguity before crediting your account. In the absence of negligence, we are not liable for any failure, delay, loss or damage in the process of collection. Unless specifically agreed, we will not arrange for protest or similar actions to be taken.
- 1.2 We may recover from you any loss (in the amounts determined by us) and reasonable expenses arising from the non-payment, for any reason, of an item whether or not we have discounted the item or permitted you to draw against or use it. We may return any document or item by post to you at your risk. We are not required to produce or return the original item to you.
- 1.3 You confirm that you are the sole owner of all items you ask us to collect or discount for you. We may at our discretion select which items to purchase and which to collect.
- 1.4 Items including cash deposited after our daily cut-off time depending on the service you are using may be treated as received on our following business day. On a cheque drawn on a bank in Hong Kong and deposited for collection before the cut-off time, interest will be credited on that day. If it is deposited after the cut-off time, interest will accrue on our next business day. For the purpose of this Condition, business day means a day where there is inter-bank clearing and settlement of funds in Hong Kong. If the cheque is dishonoured, the interest will be reversed, and charges will apply.
- 1.5 Interest will only accrue after the funds of an inward remittance are credited to your account. We will notify you within a reasonable time after receipt of the payment. For incoming cross-border payments, unless otherwise instructed by the remitting bank, we will promptly credit the remitted funds to your account after receipt of the funds is confirmed and any necessary checking is completed. If we are unable to do so, we will notify you and provide an explanation, unless there are strong justifications not to do so.
- 1.6 We may, on request by our correspondent or the paying bank/institution, and without liability, refund any amount collected that has not been paid out to you.
- 1.7 Our count of anything deposited by you is binding on you.

2. Payments out / remittances

- 2.1 A payment instruction may only be acted on if there are sufficient cleared funds in the relevant currency in your account for a full payment, and if our requirements have been complied with. Such requirements may include amount limits, and restrictions on the office from which a withdrawal may be made. In particular, withdrawals in cash or by electronic means may be subject to limits.
- 2.2 If we make a payment to you or on your behalf including paying a cheque, without sufficient cleared funds in your account or beyond an overdraft limit, you will repay to us the resulting debit together with interest and our charges.
- 2.3 We are authorised to pay the bearer of a withdrawal instruction purporting to be signed by you, but may require your personal attendance.
- 2.4 A request to stop or alter a payment may be subject to satisfactory evidence, indemnity and, in the case of a draft issued by us, return of the original draft. We are not responsible if payment cannot be stopped or altered; charges will not be refunded. A refund may only be made after we have confirmed, for example, with a correspondent or the receiving bank/institution that the payment order has been cancelled, and after receiving cleared funds and deducting all reasonable expenses and, if applicable, converting the payment currency into Hong Kong Dollars (“HKD”) at our spot rate. If we have acted reasonably, we will not be responsible for any delay or loss (from exchange rate movements, of interest or otherwise).
- 2.5 In the absence of negligence, we are not responsible for any delay or failure in effecting a remittance or delivering any item. We are not responsible as to when the receiving bank/institution pays your payee or if it fails to do so, or to recover any payment from it. Our correspondents and we may do or refrain from doing anything that they or we believe is required in order to comply with any applicable law, regulation or custom of jurisdictions outside Hong Kong. All such actions and omissions bind you.
- 2.6 Funds sent out of Hong Kong may be subject to currency conversions in Hong Kong or at the destination. Unless otherwise agreed, a remittance will be made in the currency of the country / region in which the payment is to be made, and charges (including those of our correspondents) will be deducted before payment to the payee.
- 2.7 We are not responsible to advise you on the requirements of any law, regulation or custom including exchange control of Hong Kong or any other jurisdictions outside Hong Kong. Please consider making your own enquiries. We are not required to advise you in advance of fees and charges of our correspondents and other banks/institutions which process the payment/remittance.
- 2.8 We may remit an amount to, or draw a draft payable at, a place different from that required by you if we believe that it is necessary to do so.
- 2.9 If a provisional exchange rate is used in your application for a remittance or draft, we may debit any deficit or credit any gain to your account without prior notice after we have determined the applicable exchange rate.
- 2.10 We will take reasonable steps to comply with your value date for a remittance, but do not guarantee that your request can be met. Local and outside Hong Kong cut-off times and other procedures may apply before the payee or its banker will receive payment.

- 2.11 You authorize us to disclose your personal information and information, including your stated payment purposes, relating to your remittances to the banks and other entities/individuals involved and to the authorities. We shall have no liability whatsoever whether in contract, tort or otherwise for any direct, indirect or consequential loss or damage which you and/or any other third parties may suffer arising from or in connection with our execution of your remittance instructions.
- 2.12 A service that permits payment to third party accounts involves risks, for example, an unauthorised person obtaining access to your account may pay funds to third party accounts.

3. Bank accounts

- 3.1 For certain accounts, we will pay interest on your credit balance. Notwithstanding the foregoing, we may apply negative interest rate over credit balance. Interest (including negative interest) will be calculated at the rate, and be credited to or debited from (as the case may be) your account at the time, determined by us from time to time. Different currencies may have different rates. Interest will be calculated for each day over a 360 or 365 day year according to our practice for the relevant currency. If an account is closed before a date for crediting or debiting interest, we may pay or debit (as the case may be) interest up to the preceding month or up to any date chosen by us.
- 3.2 If a passbook is issued for your account:
- (a) the passbook should be presented for every counter transaction. Please examine the passbook after each transaction to ensure that proper entries have been made;
 - (b) the passbook is for your reference only and may not show the correct balance, for example, a transaction may have been made without an entry in the passbook. The balance as shown in our records is the correct balance.
- 3.3 If an account identification card is issued for your account, the card should be presented for every counter transaction.
- 3.4 We may without liability dispense with production of a passbook or account identification card.
- 3.5 Please keep your passbook and account identification card under lock. Please promptly report any loss to us. We are not responsible for any payment made before we have a reasonable time to act on your report. A new passbook, account identification card and account number may be issued subject to satisfactory indemnity, explanation, and payment of our charges.
- 3.6 Passbooks and account identification cards are our property. They are not transferable. Please do not tamper with them in any way.
- 3.7 We may charge fees or the interest rate applicable may be zero if your account balance is less than the minimum required by us, or if your account is inactive for such time as we specify. Restrictions may apply to an inactive account.
- 3.8 We may levy charges on credit balance.

4. Cheques

- 4.1 Cheques should only be drawn on the form provided by us, and should only be used for the accounts permitted by us.

- 4.2 You will be responsible for all losses if you fail to exercise reasonable care in drawing cheques or if you draw them by a means or in a manner that may facilitate alteration, fraud or forgery.
- 4.3 We may deliver a paper cheque book to you in person or, at your risk, to the bearer of your instruction or by post.
- 4.4 On receiving a new cheque book, please check the serial numbers, account number, your printed name and the number of the cheques. Please promptly report any irregularities to us.

No amount will be repayable in the second currency. Renewals will only be made in the first currency.
- 5.8 If you have agreed to set up a deposit by placing several sums on specified dates, no interest will be payable unless you have duly placed all sums. If any specified date falls on a non-business day, the sum will be payable on our preceding business day.

“Hong Kong” means the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region of the People’s Republic of China.

“Participant” means a participant of HKICL FPS which may be a bank or other financial institution, a retail payment system operator, a licensed stored value facility, or any other person accepted by HKICL as a participant of HKICL FPS from time to time.

“Proxy ID” means the identifiers which may be accepted by HKICL for registration in the Addressing Service to identify the account of a customer of a Participant, including the mobile phone number or email address of the customer, or the FPS Identifier.

“QR Code Services” means the QR code and the associated payment and funds transfer services provided by us to customers from time to time.

“Regulatory Requirement” means any law, regulation or court order, or any rule, direction, guideline, code, notice or restriction (whether or not having the force of law) issued by any regulatory authority, governmental agency (including tax authority), clearing or settlement bank or exchange, or industry or self-regulatory body, whether in or outside Hong Kong, to which HKICL, we or any other Participant or the respective affiliates or group companies, or you are subject or are expected to comply with from time to time.

13.2. Scope of Bank Services and conditions for use

- (a) We provide the Bank Services to customers to facilitate payment and funds transfer using the Faster Payment System and the Addressing Service, eDDA Service and any other services and facilities provided by HKICL in connection with the Faster Payment System from time to time. We have the right to set or vary from time to time the scope of the Bank Services and the conditions and procedures for using the Bank Services. In order to use the Bank Services, you have to accept and follow these conditions and procedures.
- (b) We may provide the Bank Services to facilitate payment and funds transfer in any currency specified by us from time to time, including Hong Kong dollars and Renminbi.
- (c) In order to enable us to handle an instruction for you in relation to payment or funds transfer using HKICL FPS, you have to provide or input the necessary information and complete the process by such means or in such manner prescribed by us from time to time.
- (d) All payment or funds transfer transactions using HKICL FPS will be processed, cleared and settled under the interbank clearing and settlement arrangements including without limitation the arrangements in relation to the Faster Payment System agreed by the Participants and HKICL from time to time.
- (e) We reserve the right to suspend or terminate the Bank Services in whole or in part at any time without giving notice or reason.

13.3. Addressing Service - registration and amendment of Proxy ID and related records

- (a) In order to use the Addressing Service to receive payment or funds transfer using HKICL FPS, you have to register your Proxy ID in the HKICL FPS. We have discretion as to whether to offer the FPS Identifier as Proxy ID to you.
- (b) Registration and amendment of Proxy ID and related records in the HKICL FPS must be done in accordance with the applicable rules, guidelines and procedures imposed by HKICL from time to time. In order to enable us to register or amend Proxy ID or any related records for you, you have to provide or input the necessary information and complete the registration process by such means or in such manner prescribed by us from time to time.
- (c) At any time where the same Proxy ID is registered by you for more than one account (whether maintained with us or with any other Participant), you must set one account as the Default Account. By instructing us to set or change the Default Account for you, you consent and authorize us to submit the request on your behalf to HKICL FPS to override the existing Default Account registered in HKICL FPS.

13.4. eDDA Service

In order to enable us to handle a request for you in relation to eDDA setup, you have to provide or input the necessary information and complete the process by such means or in such manner prescribed by us from time to time. The prescribed process may include requiring the relevant parties to set up the eDDA using their respective account numbers or customer identification numbers or codes. For the avoidance of doubt, a Proxy ID is not intended for verifying eDDA setup. Any amendment of a Proxy ID and the related records or termination of a Proxy ID after an eDDA setup will not affect that eDDA.

13.5. Your responsibility

- (a) Present genuine owner or authorized user of Proxy ID and accounts

You can only register your own Proxy ID for your own accounts or set up eDDA for your own accounts. You must be the present genuine owner or authorized user of each Proxy ID and each account provided to us for registration in the Addressing Service and the eDDA Service. By instructing us to register any Proxy ID or any account for you in relation to the Faster Payment System, you confirm that you are the present genuine owner or authorized user of the relevant Proxy ID or account. This is particularly important for mobile phone numbers as they may be recycled in Hong Kong.

- (b) Proxy ID

Any Proxy ID to be registered by you for the Addressing Service must satisfy any applicable requirements imposed by HKICL from time to time. For example, HKICL may require the mobile phone number or email address to be registered as Proxy ID to be the same number or address registered by you as contact information on our records at the relevant time. You understand and agree that we, other Participants and HKICL have the right and discretion without giving notice to deregister any Proxy ID that is not correct or up-to-date in accordance with available information without your consent.

- (c) Correct information

- (i) You have to ensure that all the information provided by you for registration or amendment of Proxy ID (or any related records) or for any eDDA setup is correct, complete, up-to-date and not misleading. You have to notify us as soon as reasonably practicable of any changes or updates to such information by such means or in such manner specified by us from time to time.
 - (ii) You are fully responsible for using the correct and up-to-date Proxy ID and related records in giving each payment or funds transfer instruction. You are solely liable for and will hold us harmless from any incorrect payment or transfer effected by us and HKICL FPS due to incorrect or outdated Proxy ID or related records.
- (d) Timely updates
- You are fully responsible for giving instructions and information changes or updates to us on a timely basis for amending your Proxy ID (or related records) or any eDDA setup, including without limitation changing your Default Account, or terminating any Proxy ID or eDDA. You acknowledge that keeping your Proxy ID, eDDA and all related records up-to-date is critical for ensuring effective execution of payment and funds transfer instructions and for avoiding incorrect payment or transfer due to incorrect or outdated Proxy ID, eDDA or related records.
- (e) Change of Default Account
- If an account is terminated as the Default Account by you or by the relevant Participant for any reason (including suspension or termination of the account), the system of HKICL will automatically assign the most recently registered record in the Addressing Service that is associated with the same Proxy ID to be the Default Account. If you wish to set another account as the Default Account, you have to change the registration through the Participant where you maintain that other account.
- (f) Transactions binding on you
- (i) For any payment or funds transfer, once you confirm the details of a transaction and submit instruction to us, such instruction and any resulting transaction is final, irrevocable and binding on you.
 - (ii) For any Proxy ID registration or eDDA setup, once you submit an instruction to us, such instruction is irrevocable and binding on you. You may amend or cancel any Proxy ID or eDDA setup in accordance with the procedures and requirements prescribed by us from time to time.
- (g) Use Bank Services responsibly
- You must use the Bank Services in a responsible manner. In particular, you have to comply with the following obligations:
- (i) You must comply with all Regulatory Requirements that govern your use of the Bank Services, including collecting, using and handling the personal data and other information relating to any other person in compliance with the Regulatory Requirements protecting data privacy. You must not use the Bank Services for any unlawful purposes or any purposes other than those authorized or contemplated in the rules, guidelines and procedures of HKICL.

- (ii) In sending remarks or messages to be displayed to recipients or counterparties of your payment or funds transfer instructions or eDDA setup using HKICL FPS, you should mask the name or other data of such recipients or counterparties to prevent unauthorized display or disclosure of any personal data or confidential data.
- (iii) If we offer the FPS Identifier as Proxy ID to you, you should not repeatedly cancel the registration and request for generation of another FPS Identifier in an attempt to generate a number or value that you desire.
- (h) Other obligations regarding payments and funds transfers
 - (i) In giving instructions to make payments or effect transactions, you agree to take reasonably practicable steps to safeguard your own interest, money and assets from fraud or other illegal activities. You are responsible to check whether the payment recipient and the transaction are real and trustworthy in each case and exercise sound judgement. To help you stay vigilant against frauds, scams and deceptions, we will send risk alerts based on the risk warnings, messages and indicators received by us from the Faster Payment System or Hong Kong Police Force from time to time.
 - (ii) Any instruction given by you in relation to the Bank Services will be handled by us in accordance with this Part and the applicable provisions in the Existing Terms. You have to comply with the other obligations with respect to payments, funds transfers and direct debit authorisations, including without limitation maintaining sufficient funds in the relevant accounts for settling payment and funds transfer instructions from time to time.
- (i) You are responsible for your authorised persons

Where you authorise any other person to give instructions or requests to us in connection with the use of the Bank Services (whether you are an individual, a company, a corporation, or a sole proprietorship or partnership firm or any other unincorporated body):

- (i) you are responsible for all the acts and omissions of each person authorised by you;
- (ii) any instruction or request received by us, believed by us in good faith to be given by you or any person authorised by you, will be irrevocable and binding on you; and
- (iii) you are also responsible for ensuring that each person authorised by you will comply with the provisions of this Part that are applicable to him/her when acting on your behalf.

13.6. Our responsibility and restriction of liability

- (a) We will process and submit your instructions and requests to HKICL FPS in accordance with the applicable rules, guidelines and procedures imposed by HKICL from time to time. HKICL FPS has the right to process and execute your instructions and requests in such sequence or manner as HKICL considers appropriate. We have no control over the operation of HKICL FPS nor the timing on which your instructions or requests are executed by HKICL FPS. Where we receive status update notifications involving any of your Proxy ID (or related records) or eDDA setup or any other matter relating to HKICL FPS from or through HKICL FPS from time to time, we will notify you accordingly by such means and at such time as we consider appropriate.

- (b) Without reducing the effect of Condition 13.6(a) above or the provisions of the Existing Terms:
 - (i) we are not liable for loss, damage or expense of any kind which you or any other person may incur or suffer arising from or in connection with the use of the Bank Services or the processing or execution of instructions or requests given by you in relation to the Bank Services or HKICL FPS, except to the extent that any loss, damage or expense incurred or suffered is direct and reasonably foreseeable arising directly and solely from our negligence or wilful default or that of our officers, employees or agents;
 - (ii) for clarity, we are not liable for loss, damage or expense of any kind which you or any other person may incur or suffer arising from or in connection with one or more of the following:
 - (1) your failure to comply with your obligations relating to the Bank Services; and
 - (2) any delay, unavailability, disruption, failure, error of or caused by HKICL FPS or any functionality of the Faster Payment System, or arising from any circumstances beyond our reasonable control, including any delay or error relating to the risk warnings, messages and indicators about suspected frauds, scams or deceptions received by us from the Faster Payment System or Hong Kong Police Force; and
 - (iii) in no event will we, our affiliates or group companies, our licensors, and our and their respective officers, employees and agents be liable to you or any other person for any loss of profit or any special, indirect, incidental, consequential or punitive loss or damages (whether or not they were foreseeable or likely to occur).
- (c) Your confirmation and indemnity
 - (i) Without reducing the effect of any indemnity given by you under the Existing Terms or any other rights or remedies that we may have, you will indemnify us and our officers, employees and agents and hold each of them harmless against all liabilities, claims, demands, losses, damages, costs, charges and expenses of any kind (including legal fees on a full indemnity basis and other expenses reasonably incurred) which may be incurred or suffered by us or any of them and all actions or proceedings which may be brought by or against us or any of them as a result of or in connection with our provision of the Bank Services or your use of the Bank Services.
 - (ii) The above indemnity does not apply to the extent that it is proved that any liabilities, claims, demands, losses, damages, costs, charges, expenses, actions or proceedings are direct and reasonably foreseeable arising directly and solely from our negligence or wilful default or that of our officers, employees or agents. The above indemnity shall continue to have effect after the termination of the Bank Services.

13.7. Collection and use of Customer Information

- (a) For the purposes of using the Bank Services, you may be required to provide us with the personal data and other information relating to one or more of the following persons from time to time:

- (i) yourself;
 - (ii) the recipient of any payment or funds transfer to be made by you, or the counterparty of any eDDA to be set up by you; and
 - (iii) where you are a company, a corporation, or a sole proprietorship or partnership firm or any other unincorporated body, any of your directors, officers, employees, authorized persons and representatives,
- all personal data and information provided to us or compiled by us from time to time in connection with the Bank Services are collectively referred to as “Customer Information”.
- (b) You agree (and, where applicable, for and on behalf of each of your directors, officers, employees, authorized persons and representatives) that we may collect, use, process, retain or transfer any of the Customer Information for the purposes of the Bank Services. These purposes include without limitation one or more of the following:
 - (i) providing the Bank Services to you, maintaining and operating the Bank Services;
 - (ii) processing and executing your instructions and requests in relation to the Bank Services from time to time;
 - (iii) disclosing or transferring the Customer Information to HKICL and other Participants for their use for the purpose of the operation of HKICL FPS;
 - (iv) meeting the requirements to make disclosure under any Regulatory Requirements; and
 - (v) purposes relating to any of the above.
 - (c) You understand and agree that the Customer Information may be further disclosed or transferred by HKICL, us or any other Participants to their customers and any other third parties who are users of HKICL FPS for the purposes of providing and operating the Addressing Service, the eDDA Service and the Bank Services.
 - (d) If the Customer Information includes personal data or other information of any person other than yourself (including any persons specified in Conditions 13.7(a)(ii) or 13.7(a)(iii) above), you confirm that you will obtain and has obtained the consent from such person regarding the use (including disclosure and transfer) of his/her personal data and other information by HKICL, us and the other Participants as specified in this Condition.

13.8. QR Code Services

- (a) This Condition 13.8 applies to the use of the QR Code Services, together with the Existing Terms and any other terms and conditions that apply to the mobile application (“App”) through which you access the QR Code Services.
- (b) Using the QR Code Services and your responsibility
 - (i) The QR Code Services allow you to scan a QR code provided by us or by another person to automatically capture the payment or funds transfer data without the need for manually entering the data. Any QR code provided by another person must meet the specifications and standards prescribed by HKICL in order to be accepted. You are fully responsible for ensuring that the captured data is accurate and complete before confirming any payment or funds transfer instruction. We are not responsible for any error contained in such payment or funds transfer data.

- (ii) The QR Code Services can be used on a mobile device running an operating system supported and specified by us from time to time.
 - (iii) Updates to the QR Code Services may be issued periodically through the supplying app store for the App. For some devices, updates will be downloaded automatically. For other devices, you will need to download the updates yourself. Depending on the update, you may not be able to use the QR Code Services until the latest version has been downloaded. You are fully responsible for ensuring the latest version has been downloaded to your mobile device for the purpose of using the QR Code Services.
 - (iv) The QR Code Services are intended for use by our customers only. We have the right to cancel your account for the App and/or block you from accessing the QR Code Services if we discover that you are not eligible to use the QR Code Services.
 - (v) The QR Code Services are not intended for use in any jurisdiction where their use would be contrary to any law or regulation of that jurisdiction or where we are not licensed or authorized to provide the QR Code Services.
 - (vi) You must comply with all applicable laws and regulations that govern your download of the App, or access or use of the App or the QR Code Services.
- (c) Security
- (i) You must not use the QR Code Services on any device or operating system that has been modified outside the mobile device or operating system vendor supported or warranted configurations. This includes devices that have been “jail-broken” or “rooted”. A jail broken or rooted device means one that has been freed from the limitations imposed on it by your mobile service provider and the phone manufacturer without their approval. The use of the QR Code Services on a jail broken or rooted device may compromise security and lead to fraudulent transactions. Use of the QR Code Services in a jail broken or rooted device is entirely at your own risk and we will not be liable for any losses or any other consequences suffered or incurred by you as a result.
 - (ii) You are fully responsible for all instructions or requests given by you or any other person authorized by you during the use of the QR Code Services.
 - (iii) You are fully responsible for ensuring that the information shown or stored on your mobile device is kept secure.
 - (iv) If you know or suspect that any other person knows your security details, or has used or tried to use them, or if your mobile device is lost or stolen, you must notify us as soon as reasonably practicable.
- (d) Our responsibility and restriction of liability
- (i) While we make commercially reasonable efforts to provide the QR Code Services, we are not liable for any failure to provide the QR Code Services.

- (ii) The QR Code Services are provided on an “as is” basis with no representation, guarantee or agreement of any kind as to their functionality. We cannot guarantee that no viruses or other contaminating or destructive properties will be transmitted or that no damage will occur to your mobile device in the use of the QR Code Services. We are not responsible for any loss you may incur as a result of your use of the QR Code Services.
- (iii) You understand and agree that:
 - (1) You use the QR Code Services at your sole risk. To the maximum extent permitted by law, we expressly disclaim all warranties and conditions of any kind, whether express or implied.
 - (2) You download or obtain any material or information through the use of the QR Code Services at your sole risk and discretion. You are solely responsible for any damage to your computer or other device or loss of data resulting from downloading, obtaining or using such material or information.
- (iv) For the avoidance of doubt, nothing above is intended to exclude or restrict any condition, warranty, right or liability which may not be lawfully excluded or restricted.”

- 1.2 Unless otherwise agreed in writing or we are already holding sufficient cash or investments on your behalf, you will pay us cleared funds or deliver to us investments in deliverable form, by the time we notify you, in order to settle each transaction. - 1.3 We may execute your instructions in our or our nominees name and as part of a larger order. We will allocate acquired investments among you and other customers in a fair manner.
- 1.4 In accordance with your instructions, we may:
- (a) debit the relevant sum from your accounts and apply to the manager of the investment or other person to subscribe or apply for units or interests in the investment;
 - (b) apply to the manager of the investment or other relevant person to redeem, transfer or (where applicable) convert units or interests held by us for you.
- 1.5 We do not act for the manager of any investment or other relevant person. They may reject your application, although we have received it. We have no further obligations following transmission of your application to the manager or other relevant person, apart from receiving your acquired investment.
- 1.6 We will credit your account with investments, sale or redemption proceeds, refunds, and income only after actual receipt by us and after deducting relevant reasonable expenses. We may credit any one or more of your accounts. We may hold the investments and money to cover possible third party claims. Unless otherwise agreed with you in writing, we need not take any action to collect any investment or money, or inform you if any payment may become due or is overdue or if any action may be required in respect of your investments. Delivery of investments to you will be at your risks.
- 1.7 You will as required designate one or more of your accounts as settlement account(s). Your authorised signatories for your investment account or settlement account may operate both accounts and also any linked investment, if we agree.

- 1.9 An individual may open an investment account by sending us a signed copy of the account opening form, his identity document and a cheque for not less than the required amount drawn by him on a licensed bank in Hong Kong with the same signature as that on the account opening form. However, the account cannot be operated until the cheque is cleared.
- 1.10 If you are not the ultimate beneficiary or the person ultimately responsible for originating an instruction in relation to securities listed or traded on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (“HKEx”), or derivatives, including overthecounter derivatives, written over such securities:
- (a) you agree to provide full details (including the identity, address and contact details) of the ultimate beneficiary and of the person ultimately responsible for originating the instructions directly to the HKEx and the Securities and Futures Commission (“SFC”) within 2 business days of a request by us or any of them;
 - (b) your agreement in paragraph (a) above will survive termination of our services; and

(c) if a beneficiary or person originating an instruction is located outside Hong Kong, you confirm that these provisions are binding under the relevant law of jurisdictions outside Hong Kong.

- 1.11 You confirm that all your sell orders in respect of securities at or through the HKEx will be “long” sales, unless you notify us at the time of placing a sell order that it relates to securities which you do not own but have a right to obtain, i.e. involves short selling, and at the same time provide us with the requisite assurance that the sale is “covered”.
- 1.12 If any transaction relates to derivative products, including options, we will provide to you as applicable (a) product specifications and any prospectus or other offering document covering such products and (b) a full explanation of margin procedures and the circumstances under which positions may be closed without your consent.
- 1.13 You will promptly sign an order form when required by us to confirm any oral order.

1C. Transactions in complex products entered into with us, without or inconsistent with any solicitation, recommendation, or advice from us

1C.1 For any transactions in “complex products” (as defined in the Code of Conduct) that you enter into with us without or inconsistent with any solicitation or recommendation from us, before entering into such transactions, you accept and agree to the following, and we will rely on your acceptance of the following:

- 2.1 You authorise us to appoint a nominee to hold all investments acquired by us on your behalf. We will arrange for your investments to be registered or held in safe custody in accordance with applicable laws and regulations including registration of registered investments in the name of the nominee. We will record your investments held by us in your investment account maintained by us.
- 2.2 We may reject any investments for safe custody and may at any time require any investments to be withdrawn from our custody.
- 2.3 Your investments will be treated as fungible and held as part of a larger holding of identical investments held for our customers. You will be entitled to the same share of the payments arising on the holding as your share of the total holding. Any loss will be apportioned among all owners.

- 2.5 We are not required to attend meetings of holders of any investments or exercise any rights unless otherwise agreed with you in writing.
- 2.6 Instructions to withdraw or transfer investments are subject to such notice, quantity restrictions, payment and procedures as we require. Conditions apply, to the extent possible, to transactions on your behalf as well as with us.

- 3.2 You agree that we may accept from brokers and other persons involved in your transactions any cash, goods, services, rebates or soft commission.

- 3.4 We need not enquire whether the manager of any investment or other relevant person is performing its duties.

4. Information

- 4.1 We will inform you of any material change to our name, principal address, registration status, CE number, the nature of our services, or our fees or charges.
- 4.2 The information relating to your investments which we provide to you is based on information received from the person involved in the issue or management of the investments, an information vendor or a public source. We believe the information to be correct, but have not verified it. The information provider may not accept any responsibility for the accuracy of the information. We are not responsible for third party documents and information.
- 4.3 You agree that we may, by such means or media as we deem fit, provide the essential features of a securities transaction to you as soon as reasonably possible after we have effected the transaction for you. You agree that you shall promptly check the essential features of the securities transaction by yourself through such means or media provided by us from time to time. You specifically agree that we are not obliged to confirm with you the essential features of the securities transaction otherwise than in accordance with the foregoing.
- 4.4 Reports, accounts, notices and any other documents received in respect of your investments will be held by us for such period as we decide, and will be available for your inspection during such period at our designated office. Thereafter we will destroy such documents. Unless otherwise agreed in writing, you do not require us to forward such documents to you or notify you of their receipt or contents. - 4.7 If you wish to receive corporate communications in connection with the securities you purchased which are registered in our or our nominee's name, you authorise us to disclose your name and correspondence address to the Hong Kong Securities Clearing Company Limited and/or the registrars of the listed issuers, so that they may send any corporate communication directly to you.
- 4.8 Making available any advertisements, marketing or promotional materials, market information or product information to you shall not, by itself, constitute solicitation of the sale or recommendation of any product.

5. Material interest

When effecting transactions for you, our affiliates or we may have a material interest in relation to the transaction. For example, our affiliates or we may:

- (a) have a position in relation to the investments or are involved as issuer, manager, custodian, trustee or otherwise; or
- (b) match your order with those of other customers.

If we have an actual or potential conflict of interest in relation to a transaction, we will not act unless we have disclosed that conflict to you and have taken all reasonable steps to treat you fairly.

We may have existing or future commercial or banking relationships with any person involved in the issue or management of any investment or their affiliates, and will pursue actions which we deem appropriate to protect our interests, without obligation to disclose or account to you, and regardless of whether such action might adversely affect you.

6. Transacting as principal

- 6.1 We may as principal enter into transactions (in Condition 6, each a “transaction”) with you, each of which is evidenced by a confirmation (“Confirmation”) issued by us and expressed to be subject to these Conditions. Terms used bear the meaning ascribed in the Confirmation.
- 6.2 In the event of inconsistency, the terms of one document will prevail over the other(s) in the following order for the purpose of the relevant transaction: (1) the Confirmation, (2) our applicable product-specific rules and (3) these Conditions.
- 6.3 A contract between you and us for the sale or purchase of an investment is made as soon as its terms have been confirmed orally by our authorised officer or in writing signed by our authorised officer. The terms of an oral contract will be as set out in our written Confirmation.
- 6.4 All transactions constitute a single agreement between the parties (“Agreement”) and will be entered into in reliance on such fact. The parties would not otherwise enter into any transaction.
- 6.5 The parties will make payments and deliveries in accordance with each Confirmation, subject to the condition precedent that no Event of Default (see 6.10 below) or Potential Event of Default has occurred and is continuing. “Potential Event of Default” means any event which, with the giving of notice or the lapse of time or both, would constitute an Event of Default.
- 6.6 On agreeing a transaction with you, we may put a “hold” in your accounts on funds and investments in the amounts estimated by us to be required to settle the transaction. Our rights are not affected if we do not do so.
- 6.7 On receipt of your standing offer to conduct one or more transactions, we may put a “hold” in your accounts on funds and investments in the amounts estimated by us to be required to settle the transactions. Your standing offers are irrevocable, unless we agree.
- 6.8 You will fully perform your obligations before requiring us to perform.
- 6.9 Any payment, delivery or determination, which would otherwise fall to be made on a non-business day, will instead be made on the next business day, unless otherwise agreed.
- 6.10 Events of Default

The occurrence at any time of any of the following events with respect to you or any of your Affiliates or any person who has provided any guarantee or security in support of your obligations under the Agreement (each a “relevant party”) constitutes an event of default (“Event of Default”):

(a) Fail to pay or deliver

Failure to make, when due, any payment or delivery required under the Agreement.

(b) Breach

Failure to comply with any other obligation in accordance with the Agreement.

(c) Support default

(i) Failure to perform any agreement to provide any guarantee or security in support of your obligations under the Agreement;

(ii) such guarantee or security expires or ceases to be in full force and effect without our written consent; or

(iii) any relevant party (or any person appointed to manage it or act on its behalf) disclaims or repudiates, in whole or part, or challenges the validity of, such guarantee or security.

(d) Misrepresentation

Any representation proves to be incorrect or misleading in any material respect.

(e) Cross default

The occurrence or existence of:

(i) a default (however described) under one or more financial, investment, derivative or borrowing transactions which has resulted in such transactions becoming, or becoming capable of being declared, due and payable or deliverable, or otherwise terminated prematurely;

(ii) a default in making one or more payments or deliveries on the due date under any financial, investment, derivative or borrowing transaction (after giving effect to applicable notice requirement or grace period); or

(iii) a disclaimer, repudiation or rejection, in whole or in part, of any financial, investment, derivative or borrowing transaction (or such action is taken by any person appointed or empowered to manage any relevant party or act on its behalf).

(f) Insolvency

Any relevant party:

(i) becomes insolvent or fails or admits in writing its inability to pay its debts as they become due;

(ii) makes a general assignment, arrangement or composition with or for the benefit of its creditors;

(iii) or any other person commences any judicial, administrative or other proceeding, or takes any action, (1) seeking a judgment of or arrangement for insolvency, bankruptcy, liquidation, reorganization or rehabilitation with respect to the relevant party or its debts or assets, (2) seeking the appointment of a trustee, receiver, liquidator, supervisor or custodian for the relevant party or any part of its assets, or (3) which has a similar effect;

- (iv) has a resolution passed for its liquidation, reorganization or rehabilitation;
 - (v) has a secured party take possession of all or any part of its assets or has a distress, execution, attachment or other legal process enforced against all or any part of its assets; or
 - (vi) causes or is subject to any event which, under any applicable law, has a similar effect to any of the above.
- (g) Merger
- Any relevant party amalgamates or merges with or transfers all or any substantial part of its assets to another entity.
- (h) Death
- If you are an individual and you die or become mentally incapacitated.
- (i) Force majeure
- (i) Any relevant party, by reason of any event or circumstance, is or would be prevented from complying with, or it is or would be impossible or impracticable to comply with, any material provision of the Agreement where such event or circumstance is beyond the control of the affected party; or
 - (ii) It is or would be unlawful under any applicable law for any relevant party to comply with any material provision of the Agreement.

For this purpose, material provisions include the obligation to make or receive a payment or delivery on a timely basis under a transaction.

- (j) Adequate assurances
- You fail to provide adequate assurances of your ability to perform your outstanding obligations under the Agreement or any other agreement between the parties on or before the second business day after our written request when we have reasonable grounds for insecurity.

6.11 Early termination

- (a) If at any time an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, we may, by not more than 7 days notice to you specifying the Event of Default, designate a day as an early termination date (“Early Termination Date”) in respect of the affected or all outstanding transactions (which will terminate on the designated date).
- (b) We will determine in good faith our losses or gains, and costs, that are or would be incurred or realized under then prevailing circumstances in replacing or providing for us the economic equivalent of the material terms of each terminated transaction including the remaining payments, deliveries and rights. We will determine such amounts as of a commercially reasonable date and to produce a commercially reasonable result. We may apply different valuation methods to different transactions depending on type, complexity or other relevant factors. We may take into account any relevant information including market data and information from internal sources, and without duplication:
 - (i) any cost of funding;
 - (ii) any loss, cost or gain incurred in connection with our terminating or obtaining any hedge related to a terminated transaction.

All amounts will be expressed in HKD or another currency chosen by us. We will convert amounts in another currency at our spot exchange rate.

We will net off (i) amounts that became payable to either party in respect of all terminated transactions on or prior to the Early Termination Date and which remain unpaid as at such date and (ii) an amount equal to the fair market value as of the original scheduled date for delivery (as reasonably determined by us) of anything which is required to be delivered to either party in respect of each terminated transaction on or prior to the Early Termination Date and which has not been so delivered as at such date, together with interest from (and including) the original due date to (but excluding) the Early Termination Date, at the rate for overdue interest.

- (c) As soon as reasonably practicable after an Early Termination Date, we will provide to you a statement showing, in reasonable detail, the calculations and any amount payable following our calculation under paragraph b. above. Such amount will be payable on the day specified in the notice, together with interest thereon (before and after judgment) from (and including) the Early Termination Date to (but excluding) the date such amount is paid, at the rate for overdue interest.
- (d) The parties agree that an amount recoverable under paragraph b. above is a reasonable preestimate of loss and not a penalty. Such amount is payable for loss of bargain and loss of protection against future risks. Except as otherwise provided in the Agreement neither party will be entitled to recover any additional damages for such losses.

7. Risk disclosure

You acknowledge and understand that :

General

The following risk disclosure statements cannot disclose all the risks involved.

You should undertake your own research and study before you trade or invest. You should carefully consider whether trading or investment is suitable in light of your own financial situation, investment experience and investment objectives. Please consider seeking independent financial and professional advice before you trade or invest. You should seek independent professional advice if you are uncertain of or have not understood any aspect of the following risk disclosure statements or the nature and risks involved in trading or investment.

Risk of investment

Investment involves risk, and the offering document should be read for further details.

(Where past performance is quoted) the past performance figures shown are not indicative of future performance.

Risk of securities trading

Transactions conducted through the securities account may involve high-risk investment instruments, you should prudently consider before making any investment decision.

The prices of securities fluctuate, sometimes dramatically. The price of a security may move up or down, and may become valueless. It is as likely that losses will be incurred rather than profit made as a result of buying and selling securities.

Risks of trading of listed RMB products

Investment / Market Risk

Like any investments, RMB equity products are subject to investment risk. The price of the RMB equity products in the secondary market may move up or down. Losses may incur as a result of investing in the products even if the RMB appreciates against HKD or other currencies.

Liquidity Risk

RMB equity products are a new type of investment product in the Hong Kong market. Regular trading or an active secondary market in these products may not be available. Therefore you may not be able to sell your investments in the RMB equity products on a timely basis, or you may have to offer them for sale at a deep discount to their value in order to find a buyer. If the Central Government of the PRC tightens currency controls, the liquidity of RMB or RMB equity products in Hong Kong will be affected and you may be exposed to greater liquidity risk.

Currency Risk

If you are a non-Mainland investor who holds a local currency other than RMB, you will be exposed to currency risk if you invest in RMB equity products. You will incur currency conversion costs, being the spread between buying and selling of RMB, at the time of conversion between your local currency and RMB for the purchase or sale of an RMB equity product. Even if the price of the RMB equity products you are holding remains unchanged, you may not receive the same amount of HKD when you sell the products due to the spread between buying and selling of RMB. RMB is a restricted currency and is subject to foreign exchange controls. Although the Central Government of the PRC has relaxed the restrictions by allowing banks in Hong Kong to conduct RMB business in a specified scope, RMB is still not freely convertible in Hong Kong. You may not be able to convert RMB at your preferred time and/or in your preferred amount or conversion cannot be made, which may lead to investment losses. The policies of the Central Government of the PRC on foreign exchange control are subject to change, and your investment may be adversely affected.

Exchange Rate Risk

RMB equity products that are traded and settled in RMB are exposed to exchange rate risk. The fluctuation in the exchange rate of RMB may result in losses in the event that the customer converts RMB into HKD or other foreign currencies. Moreover there is no guarantee that RMB will not depreciate. Any devaluation of RMB could adversely affect the value of your investment in the RMB equity products. RMB equity products are not an investment instrument for speculating on RMB/HKD exchange rate movements.

Default Risk & Credit Risk

In general, RMB equity products are exposed to the usual kind of default risks that might be associated with equity products denominated in other currencies. The performance of RMB equity products is affected by the underlying business performance and a variety of other factors in connection with the issuers, and is subject to the credit risks associated with the special profile or special business strategy that the issuers may have.

Emerging Market Risk

RMB equity products associating with the market of the Mainland of China are particularly subject to risks that may arise from the relevant market/industry/sector and other factors such as change in government policies, taxation and political development in the Mainland.

RMB Conversion Limitation Risk (Only applicable to Individual Customers)

RMB is currently not fully freely convertible. Individual customers can be offered CNH rate to conduct conversion of RMB through bank accounts and may occasionally not be able to do so fully or immediately, for which it is subject to the RMB position of the banks and their commercial decisions at that moment. Customers should consider and understand the possible impact on their liquidity of RMB funds in advance.

RMB Conversion Limitation Risk (Only applicable to Corporate Customers)

RMB is currently not fully freely convertible. Corporate customers that intend to conduct conversion of RMB through banks may occasionally not be able to do so fully or immediately, for which it is subject to the RMB position of the banks and their commercial decisions at that moment. Customers should consider and understand the possible impact on their liquidity of RMB funds in advance.

Risk of trading Growth Enterprise Market Stocks

Growth Enterprise Market (“GEM”) stocks involve a high investment risk. In particular, companies may list on GEM with neither a track record of profitability nor any obligation to forecast future profitability. GEM stocks may be very volatile and illiquid. You should make the decision to invest only after due and careful consideration. The greater risk profile and other characteristics of GEM mean that it is a market more suited to professional and other sophisticated investors. Current information on GEM stocks may only be found on the internet website operated by the HKEx. Companies listed on GEM are usually not required to issue paid announcements in gazetted newspapers. You should seek independent professional advice if you are uncertain of or have not understood any aspect of this risk disclosure statement or the nature and risks involved in trading of GEM stocks.

Risk of trading Nasdaq-Amex securities at the HKEx

The securities under the Nasdaq-Amex Pilot Program (PP) are aimed at sophisticated investors. You should consult the licensed or registered person and become familiarised with the PP before trading in the PP securities. You should be aware that the PP securities are not regulated as a primary or secondary listing on the Main Board or the Growth Enterprise Market of the HKEx.

Risk of Precious Metal/FX Margin Trading

The risk of loss in leveraged foreign exchange trading and precious metals trading can be substantial. You may sustain losses in excess of your initial margin funds. Placing contingent orders, such as “stop-loss” or “stop-limit” orders, will not necessarily avoid losses or limit losses to the intended amounts. Market conditions may make it impossible to execute such orders. You may be called upon at short notice to make additional margin or interest payments. If the required margin or interest payments are not provided within the prescribed time, your position may be liquidated. You will remain liable for any resulting deficit in your account and interest charged on your account. A demand for additional margin is not a precondition to and does not in any way limit our right to liquidate your open positions according to the relevant terms and conditions. You should therefore carefully consider whether such trading is suitable in light of your own financial position and investment objectives.

If your margin contract or margin fund involves Renminbi, you are subject to the RMB Conversion Limitation Risk.

RMB Conversion Limitation Risk (Only applicable to Individual Customers)

RMB is currently not fully freely convertible. Individual customers can be offered CNH rate to conduct conversion of RMB through bank accounts and may occasionally not be able to do so fully or immediately, for which it is subject to the RMB position of the banks and their commercial decisions at that moment. Customers should consider and understand the possible impact on their liquidity of RMB funds in advance.

RMB Conversion Limitation Risk (Only applicable to Corporate Customers)

RMB is currently not fully freely convertible. Corporate customers that intend to conduct conversion of RMB through banks may occasionally not be able to do so fully or immediately, for which it is subject to the RMB position of the banks and their commercial decisions at that moment. Customers should consider and understand the possible impact on their liquidity of RMB funds in advance.

Risk of trading options

The risk of loss in trading options is substantial. In some circumstances, you may sustain losses in excess of your initial margin funds. Placing contingent orders, such as “stop-loss” or “stop-limit” orders, will not necessarily avoid losses or limit losses to the intended amounts. Market conditions may make it impossible to execute such orders. You may be called upon at short notice to deposit additional margin funds. If the required funds are not provided within the prescribed time, your position may be liquidated. You will remain liable for any resulting deficit in your account. If you give us standing instructions to exercise and settle a currency option by way of physical delivery of the currencies concerned regardless of the exchange rate, the currency option will be exercised and settled notwithstanding the exchange rates of the currencies concerned do not favour the exercise of the currency option and you will thereby suffer loss. You may not be able to change such standing instructions within the prescribed period. You should therefore study and understand options before you trade and carefully consider whether such trading is suitable in the light of your financial position and investment objectives. If you trade options, you should inform yourself of exercise and expiration procedures and your rights and obligations upon exercise or expiry.

Risk of funds and unit trusts

Risks are involved in investing in funds and unit trusts. The prices of funds and unit trusts fluctuate, sometimes dramatically. The price of funds and unit trusts may move up or down, and may become valueless. It is as likely that losses will be incurred rather than profit made as a result of buying and selling funds and unit trusts.

Past performance figures are not indicative of future performance. You should carefully read the offering documents for details before making any investment decision.

Investment in funds or unit trusts is different to placing moneys on deposit with a bank. The funds or unit trusts are not deposits or other obligations of, or guaranteed by, our affiliates or us. The fund company or unit trust manager is under no obligation to redeem shares in any fund or unit trust at the price at which they were issued. Although we may not charge a fee for providing services relating to funds or unit trusts, we will normally be paid a commission or rebate by the fund or unit trust manager for arranging transactions involving funds or unit trusts.

Since some markets in which some of the funds or unit trusts invest may be subject to a higher than usual risk of political or economic instability, the assets of and income from such funds or unit trusts may be affected unfavorably by fluctuations in currency rates, exchange control and fiscal regulations and as a result, the shares of these funds and unit trusts may be subject to substantial price volatility. Some markets may not be subject to accounting, auditing and financial reporting standards and practices comparable to those applicable in more advanced countries, and there may be less government supervision, legal regulation and less well defined tax laws and procedures than in countries with more advanced securities markets.

Certain funds or unit trusts may invest in higher yielding securities rated lower than investment grade. Below investment grade securities such as, for example, high yield debt securities, may be considered speculative and can include securities that are unrated or in default. As a result, investment in these funds or unit trusts are accompanied by a higher degree of credit risk than is present in investment in higher rated, lower yielding securities.

You should carefully consider prior to investing in funds or unit trusts, (a) the possible tax consequences, (b) the legal requirements and (c) any foreign exchange control requirements which you might encounter under the laws of the countries of your incorporation, citizenship, residence or domicile and which might be relevant to the purchase, sale, subscription, holding, conversion or disposal of the shares in funds or unit trusts.

The market for technology or technology-related funds or unit trusts can be highly volatile and in many cases their prices may reflect market speculation rather than the underlying economic value of such funds or unit trusts.

Certain capital guaranteed/capital preserved funds or unit trusts generally carry some terms and conditions, and redemption of shares in the funds or unit trusts prior to fulfilling all the terms and conditions specified in the offering documents or prospectus will be subject to market fluctuations or a redemption fee. Capital guaranteed/capital preserved funds or unit trusts are not guaranteed by the guarantor specified in the offering documents.

Risk of margin trading

The risk of loss in financing a transaction by deposit of collateral is significant. You may sustain losses in excess of your cash and any other assets deposited as collateral with us. Market conditions may make it impossible to execute contingent orders, such as “stop-loss” or “stop-limit” orders. You may be called upon at short notice to make additional margin or interest payments. If the required margin or interest payments are not made within the prescribed time, your collateral may be liquidated without your consent. Moreover, you will remain liable for any resulting deficit in your account and interest charged on your account. You should therefore carefully consider whether such a financing arrangement is suitable in light of your own financial position and investment objectives.

Risk of providing an authority to repledge your securities collateral etc.

There is risk if you provide us with an authority that allows us to apply your securities or securities collateral pursuant to a securities borrowing and lending agreement, repledge your securities collateral for financial accommodation or deposit your securities collateral as collateral for the discharge and satisfaction of our settlement obligations and liabilities.

If your securities or securities collateral are received or held by us in Hong Kong, the above arrangement is allowed only if you consent in writing. Moreover, unless you are a professional investor, your authority must specify the period for which it is current and be limited to not more than 12 months. If you are a professional investor, these restrictions do not apply. Additionally, your authority may be deemed to be renewed (i.e. without your written consent) if we issue you a reminder at least 14 days prior to the expiry of the authority, and you do not object to such deemed renewal before the expiry date of your then existing authority.

You are not required by any law to sign these authorities. But an authority may be required by us, for example, to facilitate margin lending to you or to allow your securities or securities collateral to be lent to or deposited as collateral with third parties. We should explain to you the purposes for which one of these authorities is to be used. If you sign one of these authorities and your securities or securities collateral are lent to or deposited with third parties, those third parties will have a lien or charge on your securities or securities collateral. Although we are responsible to you for securities or securities collateral lent or deposited under your authority, a default by us could result in the loss of your securities or securities collateral.

A cash account not involving securities borrowing and lending is available from us. If you do not require margin facilities or do not wish your securities or securities collateral to be lent or pledged, do not sign the above authorities and ask to open this type of cash account.

Risk of assets received or held outside Hong Kong

Your assets received or held by us or our nominee outside Hong Kong are subject to the applicable laws and regulations of the relevant jurisdiction outside Hong Kong which may be different from the Securities and Futures Ordinance (Cap 571, Laws of Hong Kong) and the rules made thereunder. Consequently, such assets may not enjoy the same protection as that conferred on customer assets received or held in Hong Kong.

Risk of custody

There may be risks in leaving units in our safekeeping. For example, if we are holding your units and we become insolvent, you may experience significant delay in recovering the units.

Risk of providing an authority to hold mail or to direct mail to third parties

If you provide us with an authority to hold mail or to direct mail to third parties, it is important for you to promptly collect in person all contract notes and statements of your account and review them in detail to ensure that any anomalies or mistakes can be detected in a timely fashion.
